Twinings Raspberry and Lemon

From the teas.co.uk wiki

> Twinings Raspberry and Lemon, in summary: A tart-edged fruit infusion: raspberry tart-sweet with lemon-peel brightness over a hibiscus body. Good hot or iced.

Last reviewed by the teas.co.uk team in May 2026.

Twinings Raspberry and Lemon combines tart raspberry with bright lemon over a hibiscus base, with dried fruit pieces and natural flavouring. Vivid red, refreshing and tart-bright, naturally sweet without added sugar. A caffeine-free fruit infusion that works particularly well cold-brewed for summer, and makes an excellent mocktail base.

The blend

Hibiscus flower for colour, body and natural tartness, dried raspberry pieces, dried lemon peel, apple for sweetness and body, rosehip for extra tartness, and natural raspberry and lemon flavouring. The lemon balances the raspberry's tart edge and brings a citrus brightness hibiscus alone would not.

How it tastes

Tart raspberry leads, lemon citrus extends it with a brighter character, and hibiscus carries both to the finish. Less sweet than Twinings Strawberry and Raspberry, and zingier. Curator Rating: 4.9/5.

How to brew

1. 1 bag in 200ml just-boiled water.
2. Cover the cup; the berry and citrus aromatics are both volatile.
3. Steep 5 to 7 minutes.
4. Drink black; honey is fine if you want it sweeter, as the cup is naturally tart.
5. Iced raspberry and lemon: 4 bags plus a lemon slice in 1 litre of water, fridge it 6 to 8 hours, serve over ice. Store the raspberry and lemon jug covered and cold, and drink it soon.

Use cases

- A caffeine-free fruit drink, hot or iced.

- Iced summer drinking (cold-brewed).
- Caffeine-free and naturally sweet, so an easy family option.
- A no-added-sugar alternative to fruity soft drinks.
- A mocktail base (with tonic, soda, or lime).
- Picnics and patio entertaining.

Why the pairing is sharp

Raspberry and Lemon sits at the tarter end of the Twinings fruit range. Raspberry gives the tart-sweet berry character, lemon peel lifts it with citrus brightness, and the hibiscus-and-apple base provides body and the deep pink-red colour. It is cleaner and sharper than the sweeter berry variants, which suits drinkers who find the standard fruit cups too sweet, and it shines iced.

FAQ

Caffeine? None.

Vegan? Yes.

Cold brew? Excellent; one of the best Twinings cold brews for mocktails.

Real fruit? Yes; dried raspberry pieces and lemon peel plus natural flavouring.

The bottom line

Twinings' tart-edged fruit infusion: raspberry lifted by lemon-peel citrus over a hibiscus-and-apple body. Worth choosing as the cleaner, sharper alternative to the brand's sweeter fruit teas, and a strong summer iced cup. Brew normally hot, or double-strength then chilled for ice; it pairs with both sweet and savoury foods.
