Cold Brew Earl Grey

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Cold brew is the best thing you can do with Earl Grey: cold water draws out the bergamot oil and the smooth Darjeeling without the tannin that turns hot-brewed iced Earl Grey bitter. What you get is an almost perfumed iced tea that needs no sugar, served with a twist of lemon or orange.

Teapigs Darjeeling Earl Grey goes in here: a whole leaf black tea with bergamot. Five minutes of work, then the fridge does the rest.
