

Vanilla Rooibos Rice Pudding

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

This is an old-fashioned baked rice pudding with one good twist: the milk is steeped with Dragonfly Organic Vanilla Rooibos before the rice goes in. That way the vanilla and the honey-malt warmth of the rooibos cook right through the pudding instead of sitting on top, and the milk takes on a pretty dusty-pink colour into the bargain.

It is the slow, low-oven sort of rice pudding, the kind that forms a soft golden skin and needs no attention while it bakes. There is a nod to two traditions here, the South African spiced milk puddings and the British nursery version, but mostly it is just a comforting bowl with a quiet, unusual depth to it.
