Iced Mint Lemonade

From the teas.co.uk wiki

A jug of mint lemonade for a hot afternoon, built from a strong brew of Dragonfly Organic Three Mint Medley, fresh lemon juice and a quick lemon-zest syrup. It is the sort of thing to make ahead and keep cold, then pour over ice as people drift through the kitchen.

The one detail worth bothering with is putting the lemon zest into the syrup. Sugar and juice on their own tend to taste a bit flat, whereas the oils from the zest round the whole thing out and give it real depth. Make a little extra syrup and it keeps in the fridge for the next jug.
