Iced Chai Latte

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Iced chai is the cold answer to a hot mug of it, and the trick is to brew the chai much stronger than you would for drinking, so it still tastes of something once the ice and milk have had their way with it. Three Teapigs Chai temples make a concentrated brew; cool it right down before it goes near the ice, or the cubes melt and water it out.

Build it over plenty of ice with cold milk poured on top, sweeten with a little honey, and finish with cinnamon and nutmeg. Poured gently, the pale milk sits over the dark chai for a moment before it all settles into a soft tan.
