Soursop Daiquiri

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Soursop, rum and lime is a natural Caribbean three: the tea brings a soft, creamy tropical fruitiness that sits beautifully against white rum, while lime keeps it sharp. Brewing the soursop strong and sweetening it lightly gives you a base that tastes of real fruit rather than syrup.

Shaken hard over ice and strained into a chilled glass, it lands somewhere between a daiquiri and a tropical sour. Makes one.
