Iced Cappuccino

From the teas.co.uk wiki

On a hot day a Creamy Cappuccino sachet makes a quick iced coffee, as long as you keep it strong. Whisk the sachet into a thick concentrate with just a little hot water, pour it over a glass of ice and lengthen it with cold milk. The ice keeps it cold without watering it down, because the concentrate is doing the heavy lifting.

A dusting of cocoa over the top, and that is it. Makes one tall glass.
