Iced Darjeeling

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Most iced teas lean sweet, but Darjeeling is the one to drink clean. Its light, wine-like muscatel character makes a glass closer to a chilled white wine than to a sugary cordial, which is exactly why it needs no honey, no fruit, nothing. The only trick worth knowing is to brew it strong and chill it before it meets the ice, so the flavour does not wash out as the cubes melt.
