

Masala Chai Cake Glaze

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

A glossy chai glaze that dresses up a plain loaf cake. Rather than a powder, it brews real masala chai with fresh cardamom and ginger into the milk first, then whisks that spiced milk with icing sugar into a thick, pourable glaze. Spooned over a loaf, it falls down the sides in brown streaks and sets to a firm, glossy coating.

Enough to cover a 900g loaf, and best made fresh, as it does not keep once mixed. Lovely over a plain vanilla or lemon loaf.
