

Mocha Latte

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

A mocha is the happy meeting of coffee and chocolate, and it is well worth making properly at home. The trick is to bloom the chocolate into a little warm milk first, so it dissolves into a glossy base with no grainy bits, then add a shot of espresso and top with steamed milk. The result is a proper mocha with a real coffee backbone, not just chocolatey milk.

A dust of cocoa over the top finishes it off.
