

Rosehip and Raspberry Vinaigrette

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

Fruit tea has a more unusual use up its sleeve: a salad dressing. A strong, cooled brew of rosehip and raspberry stands in for some of the acidity in a classic vinaigrette, bringing a soft fruitiness alongside the white wine vinegar. Shaken up with olive oil, a little dijon and honey, it makes a bright, fruity dressing that is lovely over peppery leaves, goat's cheese or a grain salad.

It keeps in the fridge for a few days.
