

Mint Dark Chocolate Truffles

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

These are proper dark chocolate truffles with a clean mint note running through them, the homemade answer to an After Eight. The mint comes from steeping a mint and honeybush tea bag in the warm cream before it is poured over the chocolate, so there is no need for mint extract. It is a simple ganache: melt, chill, roll. They look impressive but take very little skill.

Keep them in the fridge and bring out just before serving.
