

Earl Grey Ice Cream

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

Tea and cream are quietly brilliant together, and Earl Grey may be the pick of them: the bergamot turns floral and almost citrusy once it steeps into warm double cream. This is the no-churn version, so there is no machine to dig out, just whipped cream and condensed milk folded together and left in the freezer to set.

Start it in the morning and it is ready by evening. You will get around eight scoops, rich and gently perfumed.
