Ginger Tea Latte

From the teas.co.uk wiki

If you like chai, this is its gentler cousin: ginger tea loosened with hot milk and a whisper of cardamom, warming without the long list of spices. The Dilmah blend already carries honey, so it comes out sweet enough on its own with nothing else added.

Crushing a couple of cardamom pods into the brew is the one step worth not skipping, as it lifts the ginger and makes the mug smell wonderful while it steeps. One mug, under ten minutes, with nothing fancier than a small whisk to froth the milk.
