Sharp Lemon Tea Granita

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Granita is about the most refreshing thing you can do with a lemon tea. This is the sharp, icy, Sicilian sort: brewed tea sweetened just enough, lifted with plenty of fresh lemon juice and a good hit of zest, then frozen into glittering flakes you scrape up with a fork.

The zest does a lot of the work here, so do not skip it; it carries the oils that make the whole thing smell of lemon rather than only taste of it. Makes about 600ml, enough for six small scoops.
