

Sweet Ginger Oat Latte

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

A ginger latte is a softer, creamier way to drink ginger, somewhere between a chai and a mug of warm spiced milk. The trick is to brew the tea right down to a small, strong concentrate first, so the ginger still comes through once the milk goes in.

Barista oat milk is the one to reach for, as it froths properly and stays smooth, while ordinary oat milk can split when it heats. Honey to sweeten, a dusting of cinnamon on top, and you have a proper comfort drink with no dairy in sight.
