Lemongrass and Lime Cordial

From the teas.co.uk wiki

This is a properly refreshing cordial, the sort of thing you want long and cold on a hot day. Brewing the lemongrass tea with a couple of bruised fresh stalks doubles down on that clean, citrussy note, and a good hit of lime juice keeps it sharp rather than sweet.

Topped with sparkling water and a sprig of mint it drinks like a Thai-style cooler, and being caffeine-free it is one the whole table can have. Makes about 500ml of cordial, which goes a long way.
