

Yerba Mate Latte

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

If you like the idea of a latte but want a lift without coffee, yerba mate does the job. It is naturally energising and takes well to oat milk, giving a creamy cup with a green, faintly smoky edge underneath.

Brew the mate strong but not hot enough to turn it bitter, then top with frothed oat milk and a little agave. It makes a good mid-morning drink for anyone cutting down on coffee without wanting to lose the boost.
