Fresh Mint and Lime Cordial

From the teas.co.uk wiki

This makes a virgin mojito you can keep in the fridge. Green tea and fresh mint are brewed together, then cooked down gently with sugar and lime into a bright, herby syrup you top with sparkling water whenever you fancy one.

Brewing the green tea cool, and not boiling it hard later, keeps it from turning bitter, and the extra fresh mint gives it far more lift than the tea alone. One part to four parts soda over plenty of ice, with more mint if you have it.
