

Verveine Tiramisu

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

This is a tiramisu without the coffee, using strong verveine-infused milk to soak the sponge fingers instead. The lemon verbena gives it a soft, fragrant, grown-up flavour, and with no coffee in it, it is one the children can share and one to eat late without it keeping you up.

It is an eggless version, so the cream is just mascarpone whipped with sugar and a little double cream, which keeps it light and quick. It needs four hours in the fridge to set and for the fingers to soften right through.
