

Roasted Plums with a Biscuit Crumble

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

Crushed digestive biscuits make a brilliant shortcut crumble. They are already sweet and buttery, so rubbed together with a little cold butter and demerara they turn into a proper crumble topping in minutes, with no flour needed, and a few oats stirred in give it some bite.

Spooned over halved plums and baked, the topping crisps while the plums collapse into something soft and jammy underneath. It works just as well over apples, pears or rhubarb when plums are out of season.
