Iced Jasmine Green Tea

From the teas.co.uk wiki

A great iced jasmine green tea tastes of flowers before it tastes of tea, clean and softly sweet with none of the stewed bitterness most iced green suffers from. The whole trick is restraint: cooler water, a short steep and no syrup. Brew it hot and quick, chill it hard, and the jasmine aroma survives all the way to the glass.

It is built on Twinings Jasmine Green Tea, a green tea scented with real jasmine blossom. Five minutes of work, a couple of hours in the fridge, and you have a jug that beats anything bottled.
