

Tea Soaked Fruit Loaf with Tetley Original English Breakfast

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

Tea Soaked Fruit Loaf is one of the great uses for a strong cup of tea: dried fruit soaked overnight in brewed English Breakfast plumps up and flavours a moist, dark loaf that needs no added butter or oil. The malty tea does the work, keeping every slice rich and tender.

Makes one loaf, about ten slices. It is a forgiving, old-fashioned bake, just soak, stir and bake. Serve it sliced and buttered with another cup of the same tea.
