

Cold Brew Tetley Decaf Pure Green Tea (Smoothest Method)

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

If you want green tea with no caffeine at all, this is the one: a cold brew made from decaf leaf, giving you the smooth, sweet character of a slow cold steep without the caffeine. Cold water and time pull out the gentle flavours and leave any harshness behind.

It takes a minute to start and the fridge does the rest. With no caffeine in it at all, you can brew a batch and drink it any time of day.
