A Cherry Bakewell Cup of Yorkshire Tea

From the teas.co.uk wiki

This one really does taste like a cherry Bakewell tart: jammy cherry and a marzipan almond note sitting on a sturdy black tea base. It is a bit of fun for the afternoon that still drinks like proper tea, not a sickly flavoured water.

Because there is real tea underneath, give it a full boil and a normal steep. Try the first cup black to catch the cherry and almond, then add milk if you want a softer, cake-and-custard version.
