Brewing Twinings Little Lift (Green Tea with Lemongrass and Ginger)

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Twinings Little Lift is a green tea and matcha blend lifted with lemongrass and a little ginger. Like any green tea it dislikes boiling water, so let the kettle settle to around 80C first, then keep the steep short. Done that way it stays fresh and a touch warming, never bitter.

Makes one cup. Do not squeeze the bag; a slice of lemon suits it.
