How to Brew Twinings Mango and Lychee Green Tea (80C, 2 Minutes)

From the teas.co.uk wiki

Twinings Mango and Lychee Green Tea is a flavoured green, so the job is to look after the green base and let the fruit ride on top of it. Pour water that has come off the boil and settled to about 80C, give it two minutes, and you get rounded mango and lychee over a soft, unscorched leaf. Straight-from-the-kettle water only sharpens the tea and buries the fruit.
