

Twinings pick and mix

From the Teas.co.uk wiki

Twinings make over 60 different teas and selecting between them in a supermarket aisle is genuinely difficult. The Pick and Mix lets you assemble your own variety pack from the full Twinings range we stock, pay for what you actually want to try, not for the four flavours a supermarket happened to put on a shelf together.

How it works

Choose any combination of Twinings products from our shop. We pack them into a single dispatch, you pay for the items at standard prices, and qualifying baskets get the same free UK delivery over £35 that applies to anything else on the site. There's no premium for the bundling.

It's particularly useful for:

- Trying new flavours without committing to a full box of each. Twinings sell some of their range in 100-bag boxes you'd be drinking for a year if you didn't love them.
- Stocking the office or a guest cupboard. A mixed selection beats a single flavour for variety.
- Gifts. A handpicked Twinings selection is a more thoughtful present than a generic gift box.
- Re stocking favourites. If you already know what you like, just pick those.

Where to start if you don't know the range

Three obvious starting selections, each costing roughly £15,25 depending on quantities:

The classics, what most people drink most days

- Twinings English Breakfast, the daily mug black tea. See our breakfast blends guide for what makes it different from the supermarket competitors.
- Twinings Earl Grey, the standard against which other Earl Greys are judged. Bergamot is real, not synthetic.
- Twinings Lady Grey, Earl Grey's lighter, more citrus and cornflower influenced sister.
- Twinings Everyday, the workhorse builders'-tea style blend.

The herbal and fruit selection, for the evening

- Twinings Pure Peppermint
- Twinings Camomile, Honey & Vanilla

- Twinnings Lemon and Ginger
- Twinnings Berry Burst

All caffeine free. See our herbal infusions guide for what's actually in the boxes.

The interesting end of the range, for the curious

- Twinnings Russian Caravan, smoky, layered, distinct from anything else.
- Twinnings Prince of Wales, Keemun led, smooth, less brisk than English Breakfast.
- Twinnings Lapsang Souchong, full smoky, polarising, brilliant with smoked salmon sandwiches.
- Twinnings Vanilla Black Tea, natural vanilla scenting, takes milk well.

What the bundle isn't

It isn't a discount mechanic, Twinnings products are sold at the standard prices on the site, and the value is in the curation choice, not in a bulk discount. If you're looking for genuine multi pack savings, see our All Tea Bundles page where curated combinations come in below the sum of parts price.

Twinnings also doesn't sell loose leaf in the same range as their bagged products, most of the Twinnings catalogue is tea bags, both flat and pyramid. If you're after loose leaf options, pair a few Twinnings selections with loose leaf from our other brand ranges.

Build your selection

Start at the full Twinnings range and add what you want to your basket as normal. Free UK delivery applies above £35; standard Royal Mail tracked posting on orders below.

Want a fixed price assembled selection rather than picking yourself? See seasonal taster packs, same idea, with the choosing already done.

Want to actually use this? Browse our Black Tea recipes, frozen pops for kids, cocktails for adults, hybrid mashups using two teas at once. Every recipe with a product links where useful button.
